

COMMAND	NAME	USAGE	OPTIONS
ls	List	ls <dir>	List the contents of a directory ▪ a show all files, including hidden ones ▪ F differentiate between files, directories and executables ▪ l show additional information ▪ h show human-readable file sizes ▪ r sort in reverse order ▪ s sort by file size ▪ t sort by time of last change pwd	Print working directory	pwd	Print the name of the current/working directory cd	Change directory	cd <dir>	Change the current/working directory ▪ .. change to the parent directory ▪ - change to the previous directory
man	Manual	man <command>	Open the manual for a command

COMMAND	NAME	USAGE	OPTIONS
mkdir	Make directory	mkdir <dir>	Create a new directory ▪ p create with nested subdirectories touch	Create new file	touch <file>	Create a new empty file rm	Remove	rm <file or dir>	Remove files or directories ▪ i prompt before every removal ▪ d remove empty directories ▪ r remove directories and their contents recursively mv	Move	mv <file or dir>	Move or rename a file or directory ▪ i prompt before overwrite cp	Copy	cp <file or dir>	Copy a file or directory ▪ r copy directory and all its contents

COMMAND	NAME	USAGE	OPTIONS
wc	Word count	wc <file>	Print newline, word, and byte counts for a file ▪ p create with nested subdirectories cat	Concatenate	cat <file>	Print file contents sort	Sort	sort <file>	Sort lines of text files ▪ n numeric sort ▪ r reverse sort head	Head	head <file>	Print the first part of files ▪ n print the first n lines tail	Tail	tail <file>	Print the last part of files ▪ n print the last n lines

COMMAND	NAME	USAGE	OPTIONS
echo	Echo	echo <text>	Print text grep	Grep	grep <text>	List the contents of a directory ▪ w limit matches to whole words ▪ “” search for a quote ▪ n print line numbers ▪ i case insensitive ▪ r recursive ▪ c print match count find	Find	find <path> <options> <search criteria>	Search for files or directories in the given path ▪ <path=. search from current directory ▪ type d search for a directories only ▪ type f search for a files only ▪ name <pattern> search for files/dirs with names matching the given pattern (supports wildcards)